Want Help.

Doctor Corps.

Little Mary.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS:

Success to the Fair,

Saved His Pennies.

In Favor of the Bables.

Every Dime Helps.

Inclosed please find 10 cents for Sick Baples

With the beginning of Summer the veniences of such living quarters, and the will be developed. Children with their

Give your share, and give it promptly.

THE CLEANER

I was pleasantly surprised to meet Ruger

Donoho yesterday. He had run up from East

Hampton for a few days and was positively pining in the city air. He was the picture health with his skin bronzed to a rich brown.

East Hampton is perfectly satisfactory to him.

One is told that there is "nobody in town,

but the Park and Riverside were jammed wit

I saw a horse grazing on Fifth avenue yes where the Park begins and a horse was cropping the grass thereon very contentedly.

It was the most expensive if not the richest

Miss Emelie Slade and Miss Frances Throop, who share a studio in the Sherwood and are abroad. Last year they studied with Louis

Dumoulin, the Impressionist, and they will car was bowling merrily along there was a shock which layred me from my arat. It had triving on the track refused to get off

Swiss och-ringer. The wreich ahead only blind man was committed to the conductor's are before he had time, to regain his temper.

A little while after a hunchtick boarded the ar. Two men tried to stop the car on a curve and were chidden by the conductor. So, the

The letter-carriers' Summer belinets, donne to-day, are very umbrella-like and do not seem

oft. They are not beautiful, but I suppose obliged to submit to the danger of insolation

and if comfort cannot be combined with beaut

in the matter of their headgear, they can bet-with his partiality for humor. He was armed with an umbrella, which, considering the ength of his journey and the nature of the mly reasonable forethought. The sun came out and laughed at him, however, ten minutes

after he had left the Astor House with his um-

English mutton is accounted the best that riefs thus is not founded on fact, supposed that I had been

I am pleased to hear from Boston that Bust is well on the way to recovery from the injuri-host of friends in this city.

Eaglish mutton on the occasion of brella

er afford to dispense with the matnetic.

trip was pleasantly varied.

urned around and made faces at the car-driver nough the conductor worked the bell like a while they are over there this Summer.

The shooting down there is good. Unfortu-is a fine hand at the que.

MALCOLM MACPHERSON HUNT.

John W. Reed

To the Editor

To the Editor

To the Editor

chief victims.

Fund.

Malcolm Hunt ..

Weapon to Destroy Himself.

Bought a Pistol and Sent a Bullet

A man, apparently fifty-five years old, with day and asked to be shown some revolvers.

pose, and he was shown several pistola.

The customer wanted a pistol of 42 calibre

He inspected them carefully and finally made selection of a five-chambered weapon.

Handing it to the clerk he asked to have it

Reassured, the salesman fitted a cartridge into

The explosion followed, and the man fell dead to the floor. The ball had passed up through the roof of his mouth and come out

once, and they carried the body to the West

In the dead man's pockets no money was found. There were some cards inscribed

"Dear Friend," out without a signature

porter described the suicide, that he was i

Jones was married and has a son. He had

PRODUCE EXCHANGE ELECTION

Spirited Contest Being Waged for the Board of Managers.

Members of the Produce Exchange are to day holding their annual election of officers, and as there are two tickets in the field there is a large amount of electioneering going on among the supporters of the different factions.

Evan Thomas, candidate for Presiden

Thomas P. White for Vice-President, and E.

C. Rice for Treasurer, are on both tickets, and will be elected. The contest centres in the

The nominees of the caucus held last week are : E. H. Outerbridge, C. D. Miller, Charles

Coster, William Hamilton, F. F. Lockwood

A large number of the members, however, favored the nomination of E. D. Neustadt, of the flour trade, in the place of Mr. Outer-had been agreed upon by the cauc which appear on neither list.

ridge, and C. W. Hogan in place of Mr. Mc

Both ballots are labelled "Regular Ticket.

on, and many names are being voted for

The result will not be announced till late this afternoon. The inspectors of election are K.

Research A. L. Holmes, Robert F. Martin

Alex. Edson, Samuel Goodaue and S. C.

PASTOR YOUNG IS IN JAI

Charged with Swindling One

His Flock Out of $1,500.

Rev. Conrad Young, Pastor of the German

Pilgrim Baptist Church, on Lincoln street, Jersey City Heights, is in the Hudson County

William Schultz, of 21 Cliff street, says that on June 7, 1800, he intrusted $1,500 to his pastor for investment, and has never been able to get a satisfactory account of what became of

Recently the minister sent his family away

In default of $3,500 ball, Pastor Young was committed to the County Jail. He says the money is safely invested, but refused to make

Barker's Nephew Appointed.

Commissioner of Jurors Bernard F. Martin, to-day appointed James Barker, a nephew o

ex-Alderman James Barker of the Thirteent

District, a Register in the office of the Com estoner of Jurors at a salary of $1,300. He and resigned from the caurch, whereupo

Schultz got out a warrant for his arrest.

lad, on a charge of embezzlement.

the money.

any further statement.

Board of Managers.

and Henry McGee.

There were also some papers referring to the

'Theodore Deibold, 1838 Park avenue," and through the left eye, tearing the eye from its

The terrified clerks notified the po-paded. The clerk laughingly asked him:

you?"

with apparent sincerity:

and pulled the trigger.

auch a thing ?"

a Coroner.

Through His Brain,

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 1.

THE PARADE TO-DAY.

The Metrorolitan Police are a fine spectacle as they march in their annual parade, As a body they present splendid physique, and to see such strength under such perfect discipline and to know that it is the great munity is a comfort to the citizen.

The New York police are peacemakers. as such entitled to respect and consideration. As a role they fulfil the duties of their position in a faithful and exemplary The shortcomings of a few should not reflect upon the excellence of the he Yale Class Book" of this year terest and which reflect most creditably on that institution as a place for collegiate The graduating class outby thirty-seven any class which has ever left Yale. But one point deserves special mention. In this class bundred and eighty-seven memhers, fifty of them have depended on their own exertions to supply the means for their college education. Another interesting point is that the best scholars of the class are also some of the best athletes in Yale. The main objection to college athletics has been that they stand in the way of mental progress. The college man who excels in ooth is the best specimen that could be de-

When these fine fellows are marshalled in line they may well feel an honest pride in their striking appearance. They look what they are, the city's defenders.

Mrs. GROOMAN, of Orchard street, captured a burglar the other night. She had to chase him onto the roof, but she finally bagged him with the help of some of the neighbors. The man was supremely disgusted at being captured by a woman other woman also took a burglar captive but she locked him in, summoned a police man and then fainted. The beautifully calculated time for the faint is the striking feature in her case. Women, even when plucky, are still feminine.

The Eastern District has developed a pe culiar crank. He is particularly obnoxious to tailors, for his hobby consisted in smash ing plate glass windows and abstracting rair of trousers. He was wont to pawn the purioined unmentionables. At last be severed an artery in his wrist from the jagged edge of a window he had broken and was tracked to his house by the blood which flowed from his wound. The Brookly tailor will breathe more freely now.

WALT WHITMAN celebrated his seventy second birthday Saturday, forty admirers and friends of his sitting down at dinner with him. The hale old poet was in good health and good spirits. One pleasant feature of the occasion was a letter from another veteran bard, ALFRED TEXATSON WHITMAN is an American product, and when he goes there is no one to take the unique position he has held in our litera ture. Many more years to him.

Anti-Call men in Florida have raised the question of the validity of the Senator's late election, based on an interesting point. It is beld that the quorum in the joint session of the Legislature was insufficient in that it contained no quorum of the State Senate, and that no actual meeting of the Senate is recorded for the day when CALL's election was announced.

It is believed that of the 8,000 to 10,000 people who visited the Museum of Art yes never been there before. This, of itself would be the Sunday opening justification,

MURAT HALSTEAD expresses the conviction that BLAINE will consent to a nomination in 1893 and that HARRISON will be his warmest supporter, in case he seems to be the only Republican with a chance of

The Bridge promenade is free. There is now one way of getting to Brooklyn with. out paying a tax.

The Art Museum's first Sunday opening was a splendid success.

It's a fine day for "the Finest," or

Have you tried the free Bridge prom

The rare days of June are upon us EPOTLETS.

The Cray has let off a lot of Siberian exiles it honor of the Courseitelds wait to that land. Travel to the Czarewitch means the absence of travail to

"Alone in London "-borrowing of an America touri t a five-pound note. A real lively Spring 1-mb has more capers when it

A rail-bird should have a car-toon in its musica

"Rarly to het and early to rise,"
Is the method to follow, my son;
Then at 8 p. M. you'll be obtaing your eyes.
And can get up with pleasure at one. — Puch

When a woman marries so feeman he has

"Tam going for a sale on my outter," said th A writer of topic i songs should not be regarded a criminal, because he can make thrme.

Top Tuted Party to too friendly to the Farmers us " against the grain."

A Question of Time. [From the Ciethier and Purnisher,] Some one laid me the other day that you bought all your clothes in England. Is it tras? Why, certainly not, Howabaurd, What She-I knew you hadn't been over there for Fads. Fashions and Fancies That Delight the Gentler Sex.

Here is a man's opinion on the woman quesion: The great element of danger with woman's progress before the public lies in tals fact: That it takes women away from home who ought to be there and nowhere else. The public platform is no place for a mother who has either sons or daugnters to educate. If woman's progress to going to tend in that direction, then the soon-r that advancement engine of the law against evil doing in this stops the better. The tirst thought of a wife or a mother should be her nome; all things, no matter how important, are secondary to that, They are the protectors of the citizens, and No matter how rampent may become certain public evils, let her see to it that she keeps the evils out of her home, and she performs her greatest duty to her God, her family (and > Yellow leather laced boots are the latest ictum in foot-gear. They are not pretty, bu Paris announces that they are chic and accordngly stylish.

A novel entertainment was recently invented by a country social club. The ladies were requested to bring thread, needles and several buttons, the gentlemen hammers. The ladies bid curiosity were given a block of wood, with name and a paper here." orth several things of great in- hammer, and drove as many nails into their blocks in five minutes as possible; the gentlemen taking sewing materials and sewing on as many buttons in ten minutes as possible, Prizes were given the successful competitors and all bad a merry time.

> Up to the age of twenty-five--and not even then, without complying with many testions and elaborate formalities-young Frenchmer and Germans cannot marry without the express consent of their parents, which has to be communicated verbally or in writing, legally authenticated, to the priest or mayo empowered to perform the nuptial ceremony neither of which functionaries may officiate unless these conditions have been completely fulfilled. In the case of orphans, and even exist, and are enforced with a strictness that Women are excluded from the galleries the Japanese Parliament, because, as a Japanese newspaper says, "they might be moved by the denates there to further political agitation in the Empire.

The Superintendent of the Baltimore Training School for Nurses, Miss Louiss Paysons, studied her profession in London with Flor ence Nightingale, and was a nurse with the Egyptian expedition. The Queen bestowed upon her the Royal Red Cross.

The working girls of the Second Street Club have spelling matches every Saturday evening, but all are expected to be home at 9 o'clock Their visits to the Museum of Art in a clui body are frequent.

Necessity is the Mother of Invention.

Mr. Bleecker-What in thunder ?-Mr. Brooke Lynn-Well, I've got to see the ball game, and, of course, I can't get away from the haby, so I devised this rather novel arrangement. Ciever, lan't it?

An Awkward Admission

"It was very kind of you to invite me our reception on Wednesday. "Did 17 Why. I thought I had crossed your Self Classified. Scribbler-Nice, refined fellow that young othor, Pennins.

Scrawler—in what particular? Scribbler—I tried to get him into a conversa on about Sankeebeure the other-vening at inner, and he said he never "talked anop."

A Plausible Explanation. [From the Clothier and Furnisher.] Miss Calumet (from Chicago)—Why is it that you New York men always crease your frons-Cleverton-Trey off r less resistance to the wind and we can get atound faster.

Not a One-Ring Circus. Jack-I know Ethel loved me. Tom-But you had no show with her father

Jack-Oh, didn't If I had a regular circu with aim. That's where the trouble came in. It Was a Chill Day. [From Puck.]

Secretary Tracy—Hata! Echo—Ta ta. Beneficial Exercise From the New York Weekly.] Mr. Pinkie (10 r. M.)-My dear, the doctor sys a brisk walk before going to bed will insure sleep to insomnta sufferers like myself.

Mrs. Pinkle-Well, my dear, I will clear Mrs. Pinkle-Well, my dear, I will clear th room so you can walk. Please carry the bab with you.

Played Out

How often this and similar expressions are heard from tired, overworked women, and weary, anxious men, who do not know where to find re-lief. For that intense weariness so common and They are too small. discouraging we extrestly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. It to not a stimulant, but a tru tonic, gradually building up all the weak organ in such a way as to be of lasting beneat.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all drupwists, $1; six for $5. Prepare only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

SKETCHES BY

He Had Him. He stood and looked at a sign on For eenth street a long, long time, and then finally entered a small shop and said : "You have a sign out here which says: Troy Laundry.'

"Yes, sir."

" Well, sir, is this New York City or the city of Troy ?"

"My dear sir," replied the laundry man, Nell 'I can smell whiskey in your breath.' "I don't doubt it, for I just took drink "

"Well sir is this New York City of Bourbon County, Kentucky !" "I cave!" chuckled the caller as backed out and went his way.

He Hit It. "Jim," suddenly observed one of three nen who were sitting on the same bench in Union Square, " are you eddecated ?" " Of course !" replied Jim. "Then I want you to tell me what 'morold curiosity ' is. I just caught it in the

"That's easy enough done. Suppose put me hand in me pocket and pull it out again 9

"Would you and John look to whether I had a plug of tobacco or me handkerchief ?" " We would."

"Then, that's 'morbid curiosity' and a mean piece of business, besides, and I'll answer no more questions for you."

Right Side Now. He was standing on the steps of the Brooklyn City Hall Saturday and cheering the old veterans, when a man beside him asked: "Weren't you in the war, too?"

"You bet I was !" "Then why don't you join the boys?"

"Just exactly because some of you 'uns shot me in the leg at Gettysburg and the durned thing had to be sawed off !" And the other looked down to find the germs of disease lurking in those rooms left leg gone and a crutch trying to take its place, and queried :

"Which side ?" "Wrong side then, but burrah for Uncle Sam now! Whoop! Whoopee! Whar's the fee who wants to tackle this United States !"

Working Up a Drink. It was exactly midnight the other night when a stranger walked softly into a Broadway hotel and whispered to the clerk, who whirled the register around at "Will you please tell me if Admira Seaumont is stopping at this hotel ?" " He is not," was the reply. "Thanks-exceedingly thankful," whis pered the man as he tiptoed out. Ten minutes latter be returned with the same soft step and mysterious air to whis

"I was mistaken. His name is not Ad miral Beaumont, but Gen. Thomas."
"No such man here, sir." "Thanks-many thanks." This time it wasn't over five minutes be lovely day and were out on wheels or on foot multitudinously. In Central Park one had to ook sharp not to step on a baby. ore he returned, and he walked on tiptos o the counter and whispered : Sorry to trouble you again, but it is terday. This is literally true, although that either Admiral Beaumont nor Gen. Thomas thoroughtare does not readily suggest itself as want It is Jones-Z. Jones." good pastureland. There is a vacant lot near

"No Z. Jones here." "Just plain Z. Jones-small man-bald head-lame in left leg-open countenance. grass in this country.

" No such man." " Very well : I'll call again." " No, you won't! Here-take it and

The clerk handed out a nickel, and the man took it, bowed his thanks, and said as he softly tiptoed away :

"Yours until death! You know how to keep tavern, and you are onto the racket ! Good-night !" M. QUAD.

It Hurt Their Feelings.

annoy the animals, mister. : Rayner-Why-aw-I'm not doing so, Attendant-Yes, you are. You've been look-

The Opening of the Season in New Jersey. (From Brooklyn Life.)

A Good Way. (From the Clothier and Purnisher.

I shall have to get rid of these flannel shirts

Griggs-Why don't you send them to the wash? A Possible Peril. Prom Kate Piete's Washington. Traveller-Can I f-f-find my way through hese w-w-woods? Resident-Not if it is true that the man who h-h-hesitates is lost MORELL's TERTHING CORDIAL reit

ROLL UP THE DOLLARS, LIFT THE BOYCOTT ON BUCKL FOREIGN NEWS OF THE DAY, SHOT DEAD IN A BUN STORE, BLOODSHED IN HAYTI

Summer Is Here and the Sick Babies Board of Walking Delegates.

Delegates Send Their Conditions to Money Wanted to Start the Free the Association's Committee.

The fourth week of the embargo on the lumber yards of this city, consequent on the Lumper Dealers' war with the Board of Walking Nelson Tells About Poor torning, but the indications point to a settle-as been growing more and more severe and witness. but little lumber has leaked out to the trade, 'The Evening World "..... $100.00 although, like other similar embargoes, it has practice some lumber has been delivered.

A'ready two attempts have been made to pridge the chasm that has separated the dealmade by either side were not sufficient to suit oth parties, so the truce has held fire until Fo the Editor:
We are getting up a fair in aid of the Sick this time. It looks this morning very much as if the Baby Fund, and send you 50 cents as a fore-runner of the success we anticipate. HARLEM GIBLS. Although the dealers have repeatedly aserted that no conferences would be held with I have been saving my pennies during the past two weeks and now I send you the result 25 cents, to be added to the fund for sick basiles. Wishing you greater success than ever, JOHN W. REED. Last Priday members of both organization ties, of course, had no authority to make any official move. Nothing, however, prevented nem from exchanging opinions, and they did so. It was candy or bables. I selected the latter Saturday afternoon the Lumber Trade Asso and send you the nickel my papa gave me t clation sent a letter to the Board of Delegates explaining its reasons for rejecting the agree-

Association, and President Rogers, of the Board of Delegates, last week. The letter called the delegates' attention to the fact that an agreement was made last July between the Lumber Handlers and Tranby Croit during the Doncaster faces in The dead man was about 5 feet 8 inches in troubles of poor children who live in the the Union May 1 this agreement benefit of the jury, how the game of baccarat rather slight, dressed in dark clothes, inced rowded tenements begin. Their quarters was broken; therefore the dealers are close, confined and unhealthy. The not consent to the appointment of an arbitraheat of Summer will augment all the inconment were lived op to by the Union. This letter opened negotiations with the deldelicate physiques will be the first and bargo being lifted.

E. H. Ogden, Secretary of the Lumber Trade A small contribution to the Free Doctors Association, said this morning: "All we ask revert to his original state. Fund is a sure means of averting some of is that the Board of Delegates shall allow lumthe Thom: son street job, where the trouble children of the poor. Do not let your began, and then we will open our yards at neighbor, upon whom they have no more claim than upon you, do all the helping.

> and the engineers will go back to work on this lumber, we will consider that the boycott

> .. We do not want to bumiliate the delegates the union men. If they will do this thing he whole trouble will be over. Such a test should it prove satisfactory the yards will be seclared open at once. "All we ask now is the removal of the "It is highly probable that committees from | hands. the Association and the Delegates will get toearriages yesterday. People appreciated the will be open Wednesday arorning." At the headquarters of the Board of Delegates, 12 East Fifteenth street, the general feeling seemed to be that a settlement satis-

The yards are still closed tightly all over the o-day as it has been at any time during the to sign the agreement not to play again. struggle. The dealers and their employees are now

ooking hopefully toward an early settlement but still advised him to sign, which he finally The Executive Committee of the Board of very energetto young artists, will soon go communications that have been received from ally dented the charge. the Association during the past two days were considered at length and a letter was ordered To Urge the French Government to Gee; and, being dissatisfied with the result of probably not neglect their cherished painting to be dispatched to the headquarters of the Lumber Trade Association, containing the

I had a rather interesting passage uptown in men back to work. terms on which the delegates will order the The delegates ask that all the union men be reinstated as union men; that the rate of tion was adopted urging the French Governwages be according to the old schedule ment to induce the Credit Foncier to assist M. but it is said that lively "scratching" is going solided with a baggage wagon and tilted the for the present, and that a committee de Lessepts in completing the canal.

A committee was appointed to c horse on to his beam end. Then a man who of three from the Association be appointed to weighed four hundred pounds or nothing confer with a like committee from the Board the Government officers. got in and sat down near a very of Delegates to settle any questions that may madated fellow. Next, a man who was hereafter arise. The Board will await a reply this afternoon

One of the delegates said that the union men were not likely to handle Bucki's lumber on he Thompson street job this afternoon. Secretary Ogden, of the Lumber Trade Asciation, said this afternoon that a letter had been received from the Board of Walking Delegates, but that it contained the objection able Arbitration Committee clause, which will able Arbitration Committee clause, which while not the accepted.

No agreement was therefore hable to be reached until something more satisfactory comes from the delegates.

Buckt will not be able to get his number over to the Thompson a reet building to-day so that the proposed test as to whether the boycott has really been declared off on his fumber will not be made this afternoon. they are comfortable, and, after all, comfort is the drst requisite with those men who are HINDERED BY FIRE WIRES.

Electrical Board Finds Departmen I had the pleasure of meeting Judge Duffy Wires on Condemned Poles. this morning on Park Row. The "Little Waiton Storm, the new member of the Board Judge" was on his way to Morrisania, where he seasons his impartiality for justic this afternoon and arranged for a meeting of he Hoard at the Mayor's office at 11 o'clock toow morning. lers had seen given that the Departmen of Public Works should cut down a number of poles this morning, but when the men started in to do the work to-day they found that on all the condemned poles there were a number of country into which he was to penetrate, seemed are wires atrung.

Work was therefore abandoned until further Such orders will probably be issued by the Mayor to-morrow after the meeting of the Board.

grows, and for that reason, pernaps, it is that Dropped Dead in His Office. the belief has become so generally prevalent that the larder of each of the great ocean PETCHAL TO THE EVENING WORLS, I liners is stocked with sufficient toothsome COLUMBUS, O., June 1. -State School Con chops to supply the table for both the out and missioner Hancox dropped dead in his office home voyages. L'ke many other bethis morning. Heart disease was the cause

Too Much Material. transatiantic pligrimage until Peter [From Ctothier and Furnisher. Quine, who has stowed away thousands of Dashaway-I have an old coat I think you tons of American meat in the larders of the might wear, Uncle Jasper. ocean steamships, dispelled my belief the Unce Jasper-I'se obliged, sah. Is day coat other day when he showed me a bill against a sack? I sin't got much use for a tail coat, one of the big Cunard lines for two tons of ees Manager John Graham, of "The Referee, s A Suspicious Sound. [From the Pitteburg Chronicle-Telegraph.] he received by the deraiting of a train on the Saa gs.-I believe young Larimer propose to daughter last night." Long Island Hallroad on the day of the Brooklyn Handicap race at Graveserd. John is an Mrs. Snagge-But are you quite sure, James Snagge-Well, when I came by the park loof I was certain I heard the diamond ring. enthusiastic Elk and baseball field and has a Declaration that Parnell Will Wed Mes. O'Shea Next Week.

of Wales in Court.

IDUNEAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL 1 LONDON, June 2 -- What will probably prove the most exciting cause celebre of the season, reddish gray hair and gray beard, walked into if not of recent years, was begun this morning Delegates of the Building Trades, began this before Lord Chief Justice Coleridge and a spe-Ninth avenue, a few minutes after noon tocial jury, being the judicial inquiry into the ment of the existing difficulties within the notorious baccarat case, in which Sir William but the dealer had none of larger bore than 32 Gordon-Cumming is the plaintiff and the Prince During twenty-one days the lumber blockade of Wales the most interesting, if not the chief This, the stranger said, would answer his pur-

The action is for slander, and is brought against Mr. and Mrs. Lycett Green, Mrs. Arhad weak points, and by sabterfuge and sharp thur Wilson, Mr. Arthur Wilson and Mr. Berkeley Levett. The cours-room was crowded to its utmost capacity by those who had been fortunate enough to obtain tickets. The Prince of Wales entered the room shortly after 11, accompanied by Sir Francis Knollys, one of the Grooms in Waiting. The jury having been sworn the Lord Chief war would come to an end within the next Justice took his seat and a brief discussion 400k place regarding the examination of the revolver, examined it again very carefully, Prince of Wales, the avowed object being to and then stepping into the middle of the store come to some understanding that would cur. placed the muzzle of the wespon in his mouth the delegates, still peculiar moves have been tail the attoudance of His Royal Highness to as brief a period as possible.

Sir Edward Clarke, the Solicitor General, observed that he would consult the Prince's 'happened' to get together, and both parconvenience to the utmost, but Lord Coleridge remarked that the Prince did not attend the socket. trial as a spectator, but as a witness summoned by both parties to the suit. After Mr. Gill had brieby presented the case Thirty-seventh street station and sent for a for the plaintiff, Sir Edward Clarke, addresslong the court, said that the case was: Did Sir Gordon Cumming cheat at cards, or not? ment made between Chairman Decker, of the The question was a serious one, involving the honor and reputation, indeed the whole a letter, evidently from a woman, bestnaing career, of a man who had a distinguished

> Sir Edward described the party assembled at | Order of Odd Fellows, September, 1890. He then explained, for the height, with light complexion, blue eyes, was played, adding that the bank at Tranby shoes and striped stockings. In his appear-Croft was limited to £100 and when that was ance and conversation he appeared to be very Legitime. He has a large following in Hayti. lost the game was at an end.

It would be his duty to put the Prince of cation about him. Water and Gen. Owen Williams in the witness At 1836 Park avenue an Evening World reegates again, and the result will probably end box, and they would satis y the jury that they porter found Mr. Delbold, who conducts a saw nothing wrong to Sir Gordon's play. It wrapping-paper and twine business at that was his system to double his stakes if he lost number. until he recovered his losses, he would then Sir Gordon Cumming, when called to the the evils which will otherwise beset these ber from Charles L. Bucki's yard to be used on stand, gave his version of the baccarat affair, 22 last and begged employment, stating that At the end of the game on Wednesday even- he had lost all his money speculating in the ing the Prince of Wales said, laughingly: wheat pit. "How came you to win so much money?" to which Sir Gordon replied; "How could I help Detoold from a customer in Astoria, but winning with such cards, sir ?" The following evening Lord Coventry and discusarged him.

Gen. Williams came to him and said that something very disagreeable had occurred, and | been living at the Paris Hotel, One Hundred such a test would be a practical exhibition of that some people staying in the house had and Twenty-second street and Third avenue. objected to Sir Gordon's method of playing It is not known where his family is Witness replied: "Good God, what do you mean?" Lord Coventry then explained that ne was accused of resorting to foul play. The witness characterized the charge as 'foul, abominable falsehood" and asked his informers, who were two of his oldest friends. for advice, placing himself entirely in their

It was they who arranged the interview th gether to-day at some neutral point, and the same night with the Prince of Wales, who, whole affair will be settled. I think the yards when Sir Gordon protested his innocence, said trat there were five accusers against him and, on witness saying toat he would publicly insult them on the racecourse the next day, repeated the assertion. Lord Coventry asked witness to leave them alone for a few moments. On his re-entering the room he was told that there was but one city and the lumber tie-up seems as complete | way to avoid a horrible scandal and that was Witness pointed out that this was a virtual admission of guilt. His friends admitted tots.

did reluctantly. Sir Gordon then, in reply to a question by Walking Delegates met at noon to-day. The the Solicitor-General, formelly and emphatic-> the caucus, have placed an opposition ticket in Help on the Panama Canal. the field bearing the names of those two FRY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. Paris, June 1. -At a meeting of 330 share- gentlemen, together with the four others who

Madrid Reports the Spanish Commercial Treaty Concluded. try came to the Phess News association. I London, June 1. —Madrid advices report tha commercial treaty with the United States has ittee was appointed to confer with

Declared That Parnell and Mrs O'Shea Will Wed Next Week. INT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. DUBLIN, June 1.-The National Press ear hat the marriage of Mr. Paraell and Mrs. O'Shea is set for next week.

Richard Power and L Harrington are men

8,000 London Tailors Are Against the Middlemen.

ioned as probable groomsmen,

IDUNEAR CABLE NEWS SPECIAL. 1 ON, June 1.—As tallors were going to work this morning they were stopped by the ickets of the atrikers, and the police had to send for reinforcements to enable them to rotect the men. it is now estimated that their are 8,000 hands sions to tuerr ranks occur hourly. Prominent, Yet Obscure. (From the Washington Post.) "That actor is pretty prominent on the bir pards," remarked the guest at the hotel.

"Yes, and very obscure on the board bills, splied the landlord.

Two Wishes. Winkle—I wash I could devise some way of hanging up my clothes.

Node—I wish I could devise some way of cat from the Eigath District. Mr. Martin also dispensed with the of services Jam McCormack, sansitum, Encolment clerk, Fourth District County Democratic.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U. S. Gov't Food Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

lyte's Government,

Forty of the Insurgents Taken and Executed.

Department of the West Placed Una der Martial Law.

Minister Prite, of Bayts, the representative in this city of Hippolyte's Government, received news to-day of an attempted revolution in the black Republic.

"You are not going to kill yourself, are-The first news came in a brief cable despatch To this the stranger replied hurriedly, but from Port-au-Prince, via Washington. IS read as follows : "No, indeed. What made you think of each of the chambers. The customer took the " Execution.

"PORT AU PRINCE, June 1. * Attempt at revolution here May 28.

.. Public order not disturbed. .. Department of the West placed martist

Minister Prite expiained this as meaning that those who had joined in the attempted revolution had been executed.

A later despatch received at the Exchange stated that forty insurgents were executed. The present uprising in Hayti is said to be engineered by Legitime, the pretender to the

After Legitime's defeat the United States was mainly instrumental in restoring peace

Presidency and leader of the last insurrece and establishing Hippolyte as the ruler. Legitime left the country and went to Paris, where he has been scheming for vengeance. It is said that the men who recently attempted to assassinate Hipoplyte were emissaries of intelligent, and there were no signs of intoxi-Carrying a Jag. i From the Clothier and Purnisher.] of Firm-Mr. Travers, your expense Head account figures up very high for a duil trip. What have you to say about it? Mr. Deibold declared at once, when the re Travers-The truth of the matter is, busi-man named Jones, who came to his house May ness has been so quiet that I got discouraged. I have been carrying a very heavy load around with me, and my excess baggage has been a A few days ago Jones collected $11 for Mr. A Keen Minded Suitor. From Brooklyn Lare. "Why do you send Ethel such handsome failed to account for the money, and Deibold presents? Candy and flowers are enough."

> he diamonds back." A Task. [From the Clothier and Furnisher.] > Dashaway—Look here, did you go up in my room last night and take the only clean shirt E

'That's all right. She eats the candy and nowers rade. When we get married I get Travers—Yes; I had to go to a ball.

Dashaway—Then there is only one thing P would like to know. How in thunder did you get it on over your nerve?

Trapped. [From the Clothter and Pur Angry Customer-Look here, I have only had this suit a week and there's a button off. Tailor—Yes, sir; I sewed that button on mys-self, and now I would like to call attention to Hand-in-hand -Pearline and purity. You can't have one without the other. A good housekeeper will have both. Pearline cleans anything that dirt can settle on. In the laundry, the bath, and all work about the house, it washes thoroughly, easily, safely and cheaply. You will find

Everybody else is using it. Beware Feddiers and some unserupalous grocers are offering imitations which they dain to be Pearline. ITS FALSE. PFARLINE is never peddled. 220 JAMES PYLE, New York.

there is nothing else like it.

FLINT'S FINE URNITURE

rerooms of the ORIGINALITY, EXCEL-LENCE and CHEAPNESS of the new DE-SIGNS in FURNITURE manufactured by us. NO MIDDLE PROFITS ATC CHARGED on THESE GOODS. As manufacturers we can detiver DIRECT FROM OUR WORK. SHOP TO THE PURCHASER, insuring SOUND CONSTRUCTION and a LARGE SAVING IN PRICE. BEDROOM, DINING and HALL FURNIS

TURE of the finest quartered cak. Very pleasing esigns in mahogany, maple and cherry, at m ander ordinary rates.

IN PARLOR GOODS we show many new shapes and styles in upholstery. We have strives to combine artistic elegance and durability with

ALL PLAIN FIGURES. CASH, NO CREDITS, NO DISCOUNT. "BUY OF THE MAKER."

GEO. C. FLINT CO., teres, 104. 106 and 108 West 14th St.

Lumber Dealers' Ultimatum to the Baccarat Case on Trial and Prince An Unknown Man's Device to Get a Attempted Revolution Against Hippo-